What question about God/Faith do you find hard to answer?

If you could ask God one question, what would it be?

What are the 'big questions' for people in your context?

How important is it to have all the right answers to people's questions?

On what issue have your views changed most over time?

In your experience, what is the biggest obstacle to people coming to faith?

'Science has disproved God.'

How would you respond?

'There's no such thing as truth.'

How would you respond?
